More than 75 veterans from the greater Norwalk area, including Charles Roy, are presented the 'Connecticut Wartime Service Medal' by State Senate Majority Leader Bob Duff, and the Connecticut Veterans Affairs Commissioner Sean Connolly, during a ceremony at the Norwalk Public Library Main Branch Thursday. The Connecticut Veterans Wartime Service Medal was established by the General Assembly in 2005 to honor all Connecticut veterans with qualifying wartime military service. Below, Florence Gordon receives the honor as Duff and Connolly applaud. More photos may be found at www.thehour.com
